The leading cause of absenteeism in the workplace is the lack of adequate child care for children who are sick and on vacation. The services of Nannies4hire.com and Care4Hire.com help your employees stay on the job.

Whether your employees need a full time or part time caregiver, with over 500,000 families and caregivers online today, Nannies4Hire.com Care4Hire.com provides your employees with the tools they need to understand and prepare for unforeseen emergencies.

www.nannies4hire.com is an online database for nannies and families in the United States and Canada. You can preview available caregivers online for free. There are caregivers available for full-time, part-time, temporary, summer, live-in and live-out positions with a variety of different experience levels. The caregivers you see on the free preview are the same caregivers you see once you register. Besides relationships with Dr. Phil, SUPERNANNY and the Discovery Channel/TLC to name a few we have also teamed up with corporations to help find childcare for their employees. Hundreds of thousands of families and caregivers throughout the United States and Canada have joined Care4hire.com and our list continues to grow daily.

www.care4hire.com is designed to assist families in finding a quality babysitter for their specific needs and requirements and offer babysitters an enjoyable employment experience. Whether you need a babysitter for a few hours to a few days, you will find it at Care4hire.com. Once you are a registered member, you will be given immediate access to caregivers through email and phone. The Dr. Phil show uses Care4hire.com to find sitters for their show guests. Care4hire.com also offers petcare, elderly/companion care, tutors, housekeeping and other misc. help.
